

PhysSec Education Policy on DEF CON

General

1. This policy governs PSV's presence at DEF CON each year.
2. DEF CON is the only event the Village participates in without any remuneration or reimbursement by the event.
3. The Village classifies volunteers as either:
  - a. Internal, who are members of the Corporation; or
  - b. External

Volunteer Corps

4. The Chief Intern Manager shall determine how many total volunteers (internal + external) are required at DEF CON each year, which usually is set at 35.
5. The Chief Intern Manager shall determine how many internal volunteers need to be brought to DEF CON from remote locations, for their skills, knowledge or ability to contribute to the Village for a large proportion of the conference. This number is usually set at 10 to 15.

Expenses for Internal Volunteers

6. The Village shall cover the cost of flights and hotel stay for each internal volunteer. The village may impose a maximum reimbursement amount for flights for each person.
7. The Village shall cover the cost of all incidentals and other travel expenses for internal volunteers according to the Policy on Expenses.

Expenses for External Volunteers

8. The Village shall cover food for each external volunteer only while on shift, or at celebratory group dinners after the Village closes each day.
9. The Village shall cover any miscellaneous expenses that external volunteers incur on behalf of the Village.
