

PhysSec Education Policy on Local Events

General

1. This policy governs PSV's presence at events for which a sufficient number of PSV volunteers live within commuting distance of the event, such as for events held in Toronto.
2. PSV will not agree to participate in any such event unless either:
 - a. all direct expenses incurred by PSV are reimbursed by the event organiser; or
 - b. in consultation with PSV, the event is offered for free or for a substantially reduced cost as a service to the community

Expenses

3. All expenses related to the putting on and attending the event shall be reimbursed by PSV pursuant to the Policy on Expenses, and, if applicable, charged back to the event.

Travel

4. Long distance travel for volunteers who are not local will not be covered except in extenuating circumstances that require that person's specific presence for the event to be successful
